Fluent and Persuasive Is the Auctioneer Who Sells Books at $300 a Ton

By His Wonderful Grasp of committed to print. But I want to do the auctioneer justice, and will do the best I Universal Knowledge He Dazzles the Unwary Dilettante.

FIND I cannot laugh $2 worth at musical comedies any more, and that the sob shows make me laugh only once in awhile. And then, I am very fond of literature. So I went to a book auction of books in the last four hours."

"That is pretty good, isn't it?" I inquired. good-very good, indeed," he replied.

proceeds of the sale for that evening at padias that were on the shelves ready to be slaughtered.

about when the sale will be over. It still predia on sale.

gays, "Last few weeks of the sale." bit, draped in red cloth mything literary-that it ran in our family. First he sold some books of travel, a I told him I was interested in almost was not there to do the public's bidding, but he promised to be grateful for all bids by the public. There was a little laughter, He makes good money, but he works

Then he got right down to business. He opened a book, and leaned toward the audience, so that every one could see the book contained real print and paper, and asked, in a peremptory manner, how much The he was offered for "Be Your Own Artist." in one volume, cloth; how much?

He was quick and brilliant and had a lot the cattle home. Are you all through? of personal magnetism; you know what I A quarter is bid," and so on. mean; he could sway the feelings of his description of the kind of books the

He held up the "Be Your Own Artist" so were made one's mouth water. all could see, and said:

Week's Papers.

in the ring," said Busy Man last evening

"With a lusty leap clear into the centre of the ring, where the limelight falls brightly," replied Constant Reader. "I'll vernors was given out for publication by his secretary, Frank Harper. The letter ors who on February 10 wrote to Colonel

Roosevelt asking him to define his position.

His reply was a definite acceptance of the implied invitation to be a candidate for the Presidency of the United States, phrased in states.

I absolutely agree with you that this matis not one to be decided with any refer was addressed to the list of seven govern-tell you about it.

form of the colonel follow the sombrero?"

News of the Past Week Is Here

"Did the stalwart

"You told me last week that the hat was glad of it. He replied to the charge that

Gentlemen: I deeply appreciate your letter, and I realize to the full the heavy responsibility it puts upon me, expressing as it does the carefully considered convictions of the men elected by popular vote to stand as the heads of government in their several mittee of the national Roosevelt committee with emphasis.

"This volume will give you a quicker onception of art than correspondence schools," he went on. "What do you give for it? Somebody start it.

"It teaches how to depict sorrow, joy, anger, fear, contempt and laughter. How much am I offered?"

Then, after a short pause, he said: "Where am I-Greenwood Cemetery?

"Ah! The gentleman says 10 cents. Be a master either with pen, brush, pastel, grease, crayon or chalk; twenty is bid. Do I don't mean the second sale of the Rob-ert Hoe library. That must be an interest-thank you-thirty, thirty-five, forty, fortying book auction, too. The first Hoe sale five; do I hear a half? Draw from nature, brought $867,363 50-almost a million dollars. landscape, flowers, animals, figures and Z don't know exactly how much the Broad-portraits. Draw from memory; table showway book auction that I attended brought, ing comparative measurements of different After the sale I asked the auctioneer, and parts of the human body-heads, hands, feet, legs, arms and so forth. Do not let have sold one and one-quarter tons a nickel, friends, stand between you and a

"A haif is bid; do I hear five? Are you "On such a cold night as this, it is very all through? All done? How to sell pictures, how to get a position as an artist; "Have you any means of knowing how fifty-five is bid; sixty is offered, sixty-five

So probably it will be safe to estimate the him explain any one of the several cyclo-than half a pound bring more than that at the Hoe sale, they say.

The Broadway book auction has been funning quite a few years, and the red flag in front of the auction room is not failed.

I tried to get a man next to me to call it for a cyclopædia, but the man said he had three cyclopædias as well as a mortgage. He refused. So I had to wait until it occurred to the auctioneer to put a cyclopedia to the auctioneer to put a cyclopedia. in front of the auction room is not definite curred to the auctioneer to put a cyclo-

I thought if I asked for it the auctioneer "Are you interested in any particular set of books?" the auctioneer asked me, a few me nervous, because I am still paying for moments before he mounted the little pulthat I bought on the one-cigar-a-day rys-

He said I was the kind of man he liked few dictionaries, some volumes of poems to see in his place, and that I might feel and some practical self-instruction books.

The would see the like the self-instruction books.

I don't know which I liked best.

He recited a stanza from one of the There were a good many persons in the greation rooms by this time, and the guetton rooms by this time, and the guetton room, added to the telling effect it was not there to do the public body.

and every one thought the auctioneer was hard, and I think that he is entitled to it. And he is so entertaining. The stanza went like this:

"How much am I offered?" asked the to manifest itself. He had such a fluent auctioneer. "Notice how the weird picture command of language, and his gestures is brought before our mind's eye. Do I were so graceful. But, back of these ac-complishments, the crowd felt the auctioneer had superior powers of thought. drowned maiden can be heard still calling his description of the kind of books they

"The printed pictures are the embodigou to obtain a mastery of art and draware a triumph of modern art printing softness of the colors of the original paintings." replied the auctioneer.

Set only in 14-karat solid gold mountBuy these books and let the author do books."

Softness of the colors of the original paintings." replied the auctioneer.

Whose the colors of the original paintings." replied the auctioneer.

Whose the colors of the original paintings." replied the auctioneer.

Whose the colors of the original paintings." replied the auctioneer. want for it $2. It's not what they want: and sumptuous. Five massive royal The flashing eye, the vibrating voice, the top, type large, clean and new, heavy "Is it dust proof, stem-impetuous gesture, are largely lost when paper, enamel finish, all the richness and asked a man down front.

Constant Reader Tells Him

The Hon. W. R. Stubbs, Governor of the of Utah and A. J. Pothler of Rhode Island.

State of Kansas, Topeka, Kan.

The Hon. Herbert S. Hadley, Governor of the State of Missouri, Jefferson, Mo.

The Hon. Herbert S. Hadley, Governor of the State executives, including the State of Missouri, Jefferson, Mo.

"Colonel Roosevelt plunged into the thick of the fight for the Presidential nomination in Boston. He said unequivocally that he was in the fight to the end and was he would be breaking his third term pledge if he accepted another nomination, saying am perfectly happy now,' said he, 'because I am making a straight out fight for a principle. The issue is in no way a personal one.' 'Do you intend to support the was asked. 'Of course I shall,' he replied,

Republican nominee, whoever he may be?

THE ROOSEVELT ORGANIZATION.

"There was started almost full-blown, a

Roosevelt headquarters on the twenty-fourth floor of the Metropolitan tower, in this city. It was evident that an organization had been perfected, and from the lavis as follows: Senator Joseph M. Dixon, of Montana, chairman; Frank Knox, chair-way in which the rooms were being that he meant a third consecutive term. 'I

"WELL," HE REPLIED, KINDLY, "I HAVE READ 'IVANHOE' FOUR TIMES. THAT'S A GREAT STORY."

"Is it dust proof, stem-wind, stem set?" of literature.

Governors Deneen of Illinois, Oddie of

"The Democrats of the House at Wash ington, in caucus, approved a bill placing ugar on the free list, thus eliminating $53,000,000 in annual customs revenue. The a pound, and a tax of I per cent on the in-earning more than $5,000 a year. The meas ure is so drawn as to meet the decision of the United States Supreme Court that new tax is expected to yield a revenue of TAXICAB THEFT CLEARED UP.

"What's the latest news of the 'crater or erime' yelept New York and of the rest of "Seven men are now under arrest and three more men are wanted for the day light $25,000 taxicab robbery in Trinit;

Place on February 15. The prisoners taker

Memphis; Joseph Lamb, known as 'English

Scotty,' who played an unimportant part;

insists that he is innocent; Jess Albrozza, sharp featured Italian, who has confessed;

James Pasquale, alias Jimmy the Push, fession to Deputy Police Commissione bail each as accessories after the crime.

Brooklyn, and Frank Redmond, twenty-prominent Brooklyn family, living in a big

Gene Montani, the taxicab driver, who still are Eugene Splaine, who was arrested in between $50,000,000 and $60,000,000 a year.

an income tax is unconstitutional.

the country?" asked Busy Man.

ome of every individual or copartnership

Nevada and Mead of Vermont.

solves on record are Adolph O. Eberhart of heavier than air flying a man leaped from were killed or wounded, but all foreigners windows in many of the most famous of the anthracite mine workers and the Minnesota M. F. Hay of Washington B. F.

nedicine without a license, could not agree upon a verdict. The jurors took three pallots, each of which showed eight for equittal and four for conviction. William Henry Hall, of No. 255 West 73d street, a wealthy retired builder, who years did not explode. Among the refugees at age constructed some of the finest dwelling houses in the uptown district, was run provisions include free sugar, estimated to reduce the cost to the consumer 14 cents down and fatally injured by a skidding utomobile when he attempted to cross Broadway at 83d street. He was put into the car and hurried to Roosevelt Hospital, where he died within a few minutes. CHINESE TONGS BUSY AGAIN.

"In the second outbreak which has octween the On Leongs and the Hip Sings, two men, both members of the On Leongs, were shot and seriously wounded. The shooting was followed by a running fight down the Leshaped arcade which runs from marks the boundary line between the territory of the rival tongs.

the neck, but the knife stashes were not Beach was formerly the wife of Charles F. Havemeyer, who died in 1898, and 'Bob' Delio, saloon proprietors, and Edward Kinsman, the amateur boxer and "It took more than a letter of apology, it hartender, who has made a detailed condore Bingham against Mayor Gaynor, Dougherty of everything that happened which was discontinued when on February while the hold-up was being conceived and 16 the Mayor wrote to the former Police planned and what occurred after the robbery, even to the division of the $25,000. in his letter on which the suit for $100,000 Swede Annie,' whose name is Annie Hall; vas based should not have been applied to Myrtle Hoyt and Rose Levey, companious General Bingham. There were expenses of three of the bandits, are held in $5,000 incident to the suit, for court costs, witness fees and such matters. Larger than these "Walter Meseritz was wantonly murwas the fee pald to General Bingham's dered by two men in his little store at No. lawyer, the total being something like 779 Flatbush avenue, Brooklyn. James Cas-$10,000. Mayor Gaynor paid these costs and sidy, twenty-seven years old, a profesexpenses, and it was upon this condition sional burglar, of No. 56 State street, that General Bingham dropped the suit. five years old, the alleged black sheep of a

"With the sailing of the steamer Lusitania the other day the Cunard Line began its new policy of starting its big boats on their eastward trip at 1 a. m. This innovation has been made possible, the officials say, by the lighting of Ambrose Channel, now as safe to sail by night as it is by day.

ETHEL CROKER BREEN'S SUIT.

"The divorce suit of Mrs. Ethel Croker Breen, daughter of Richard Croker, formerly boss of Tammany Hall, from her husband, John J. Breen, a former groom at Durland's Riding Academy, came to trial before Justice Goff. The couple were sacretly married in Hoboken on April 28, 1910. The jury in the case disagreed.

By a decision of the Court of Appeals, handed down at Albany, Richard Barry, of to membership in The Players, of New His membership was vacated because he wrote a maguzine article in March, 1911, criticising actors as a class. He denied he had violated any of the rules of the club.

"With a stroke of his pen Governor Wilson of New Jersey put an end to one of hathe most thriving industries of the 'Mosquito State,' particularly in Jersey City He signed Assemblyman and Hoboken. Martin's bill taking from justices of the peace the power to perform the marriage ceremony.

"The estate of Charles T. Yerkes, the traction capitalist of Chicago, which was variously estimated at from $15,000,000 to $25,000,000, amounts to only about $4,000,600, Wallace S. Fraser, Deputy State Controller, filed in the Surrogate's office the transfer tax appraisal of the estate."

MUTINY OF CHINESE SOLDIERS.

ings exactly duplicated. ings," replied the auctioneer. the work. How much am I offered? The auctioneer. Take just a little thing that he got off author will be your guide, philosopher, this what you're willing to give. Somebody quarto volumes de luxe, heautifully bound in buckram, side-stamp, full gilt back and much am I offered—how much?"

A revelation in art, an educate in about some books of travel. He had the storyteller and friend. How much is bid? history, an inspiration in religion, how in buckram, side-stamp, full gilt back and much am I offered—how much?"

The author pays the hotel bills and you right variety of language for every kind. right variety of language for every kind. The author pays the hotel bills and you of literature. "Why leave your easy chair?" he asked. "Lofter along the Riviera and Southern promptly.

> for the outbreak. Much reckless shooting occurred, and one shell, which fell into the compound of the American Legation, tore through the tent of one of the soldiers of aboard ship at Havana for transport to the the recently arrived reinforcements, but the American Legation are Willard D.

> Straight, ex-American Consul General at Moukden and now the representative of a New York financial syndicate, and his wife, who was Miss Dorothy P. Whitney, daugh- One blade of one of her propellers was ter of the late William C. Whitney. The nutinous troops finally departed from the city and the disorders stopped.

The government at Peking is preparing an elaborate reception for Tang Shao-yi's curred in Chinatown this year, following delegation of republicans from Nanking the expiration of the treaty of peace be- charged to notify Yuan Shih-kai of his election as President of the Republic. Apparently the country is very strongly in favor of Yuan as President. Many soldiers who are not republican have given their Mott street to Doyers street and which Yuan holds the confidence of both Manchus and Chinese, which probably indicates 'Mrs. Frederick O. Beach, a well known dealing for the court's overthrow were un-New York woman, was injured by a negro warranted. The new government has deat Alken, S. C. Mrs. Beach was cut about cided that the country shall hereafter be anything but temporary injury. The negro include Tibet, Turkestan, Mongolia and was apparently intent on robbery. Mrs. Manchuria. It has been virtually decided to convert the Forbidden City into a government inclosure, where all the offices will grounds about the Winter Palace will be converted into a public park.

Commissioner that the strong words used MEXICAN REBELS TAKE JUAREZ.

"The Vasquistas rebel element took possession of Cludad Juarez, Mexico, after firing a single volley. The rebel force plans next to capture the city of Chihuahua. All Americans who can leave Mexico are doing so as rapidly as possible. Those who feel that their interests there are too great to sacrifice are buying guns and ammunition in large quantities to defend themselves. Refugees say that while the Mexicans in the cities do not seem ill disposed toward Americans, those in the country districts are openly hostile. President Madero of Mexico has been advised by this government that it cannot accede to his request that the port of El Paso be closed in order to prevent the unhampered exportation of supplies of all kinds to the revolutionists in control of Juarez. "Martial law was proclaimed at Beirut, Turkey-in-Asia, although all is quiet within the town. No fewer than sixty persons were killed and one hundred wounded during the bombardment by the Italian war ships. The arrival of the Italians was follewed by an immediate demand for the surrender or the destruction of two Turkish torpedo boats lying in the harbor. The New York, wins in his fight to be restored demand was promptly refused, and after a short delay the Italians opened fire, the shells causing great damage. Three torpedoes finally destroyed the Turkish vessels. The Turks fought bravely, but were at great disadvantage, as they were unable to manœuvre their vessels. Their guns, too, were of small calibre.

"The settlement of the threatened coa strike in Great Britain is yet afar off. The government has not been able to induce all the coal owners to agree to the demand for a minimum wage made by the miners, but Premier Asquith declared that if the principle of a minimum wage was not secured by agreement it would be secured 'by othe means.' Fully eight hundred thousand miners have already laid down their tools and will not pick them up again until an agreement satisfactory to the Miners' Federation is reached. The men have the government behind them and feel that victory has been won.

"The suffragettes in London entered upon

Italy; see the Barbary Coast; let Morocco. The Broadway Stroller Who towns unfold their mysteries; let Greece, Constantinople, Asia Minor and Palestine become familiar places to you. Buy it, read it and pass it along. Do I hear ten dollars, seven-fifty, five, two-fifty-75 cents is bid. When a cyclopædia of many volumes was placed on sale the auctioneer's large training in the effective use of language, his graceful and commanding attitudes and gestures, his vast and specific knowledge of the contents of the work, took the crowd 'How does the oyster get its pearls?" asked the auctioneer. "How does the soft, flabby, Uttle oyster, certainly not a handsome thing for us to look at, give us one of the most beautiful things in the world?

"Matteawan," suggested a man who wore a guaranteed cut glass scarfpin and in other respects presented a smart appear-

"Why is the sky blue?" continued the auctioneer, unabushed. "Why do I get out of breath when I run? Why are veins blue and blood red? Come, my friends, make a

"Why have horses hair and sheep wool. when both eat grass?" "Got anything about the hookworm" asked a man in the audience. "Hookworms, coronation of King George and flying machines," replied the auc-

"If clouds are soft why do they make a noise when it thunders?" he continued. Census, cost of living and Christian Science brought down to date-how much? "Does it tell why a popgun goes pop?"

scarfpin. 'Yes, and how soap takes the dirt out," replied the auctioneer.

"Greatest work of its kind ever published. Brush your mind against the master minds of the past and present-how much is bid? Get in tune with nature; understand the history of the world.

"Switzerland, the land of mountains and snow; Italy, the land of romance; Russia as it is to-day, the glory that was Greece, I paid a $5 deposit on them and haven't the grandeur that was Rome-what do you the faintest idea how I will raise the rest know about 'em?

"How much is offered? There are 2,187 of the money. special writers, 62,567 subjects treated, 374 maps, 2.192 half-tone illustrations, 603 special engravings and drawings, 143 superbplates in color-how much? and to the publishers of the "Gallery" I ers and musicians, artists and architects, oratory swayed me. soldiers and sailors, doctors, mechanicians, happened, my friends, when Sir Isaac had gone out into the winter storm. My Newton saw an apple fall from a tree?" father always told me to meet men of man down in front.

knock the auctioneer a little bit off his habit, you remember, base. For the first time that evening he

"The supreme problem of life," he continued, in a confidential, appealing tone. is how to get money in sufficient quanity to make you independent before your air turns gray and your eyes grow dim. The majority are failures because they don't think right. If you have the determination to be a winner, get this set of

"How late is it?" asked a man who had going to read some more." just come in.

down to Taft," replied the auctioneer I am going to spend my evenings in the li-

Recapitulated for the Busy Man

Recapitulated for the Busy Man

The Hon W. R. Stubbs, Governor of the State of Kansas, Topeka, Kan.

The Hon W. R. Stubbs, Governor of the State of Kansas, Topeka, Kan.

The Hon W. R. Stubbs, Governor of the State of Kansas, Topeka, Kan.

The Hon W. R. Stubbs, Governor of the State of Kansas, Topeka, Kan.

The Hon W. R. Stubbs, Governor of the State of Kansas, Topeka, Kan.

The Hon W. R. Stubbs, Governor of the State of Kansas, Topeka, Kan.

The Hon W. R. Stubbs, Governor of the Hon W. R. Stubbs, Governor of the State of Kansas, Topeka, Kan.

The Hon W. R. Stubbs, Governor of the Hon W. R. Stubbs, Governor of the State of Kansas, Topeka, Kan.

The Hon W. R. Stubbs, Governor of the Hon W. R. Stubbs, Governor of the Hon W. R. Stubbs, Governor of the State of Kansas, Topeka, Kan.

The Hon W. R. Stubbs, Governor of t

"Full honors will be paid to the dead of per cent, to take effect on March 4, was anthe battleship Maine before they are jut nounced by President William Whitman of United States. President Gomez of Cuba Several of the other mills whose operators issued a decree setting forth the programme of ceremonies. "The White Star liner Olympic arrived at Plymouth, having struck a submerged wreck in the Atlantic early in the morning.

SUBWAY SCHEME SUBMITTED.

"Anything important in the way of news "Another proposition for the construction of rapid transit lines as laid down in the McAneny-Willcox report of June has been received from the Interborough Rapid Transit Company. As far as routes go the Interborough offer follows out the report of full adherence to the President-elect, and June. As to financial arrangements, not banking firm of Ladenburg, Thalmann & only does the Interborough agree to accept an 8.76 preferential payment in place of the that the suspicions that he was double actual 9 per cent guarantee which it de- Frank Stuart Bond, formerly president of manded at that time, but there are a num- the Philadelphia & Reading Railroad, died ber of other points in which the Interbor- at Jekyl Island, off the coast of Georgia. city's representatives. The proposition will, Dodge & Co. and a cousin of the late Eddeep, and it is not believed she will suffer China, the word 'great' being intended to it is expected, be approved by the Board of mund Clarence Stedman, as well as second

"In an exhaustive report on the methods of the United States Steel Corporation. Farquhar J. McRae, expert accountant for be situated. When the Empress Dowager the Stanley steel investigating committee, in Media. Penn. She was active in the is said, to settle the suit of General Theo- and the Emperor depart the extensive declares that the corporation controls 80 per cent of the country's steel trade; that prices are manipulated through the famous City Treasurer of Mount Vernon, died at Gary dinners; that J. P. Morgan & Co. his home in that city. Brother Justin (Sterealized $69,300,000 in profits for promoting the corporation, and generally supports the contentions of the government in its suit Philadelphia. W. Wickham Smith, a leadagainst the trust.

"At a conference between the committee Brooklyn."

"Drops In" Is Often Fettered by a Lifelong Contract.

The cyclopædia had started at $10, and the language and gestures of the austioneer had carried the bidding up to The auctioneer, at this point, walked up and down on the raised plat-He wore a skullcap, a celluloid standing ollar that was too low effectually to hide the activities of an unusually busy Adam's apple. He wore a tied-at-the-factory four-He was a tall, thin man. He looked at the audience over his old-fashioned black rimmed spectacles that were placed far down on his nose, and began in a stage whisper that gradually gave way to a louder method. "My friends, I don't want to criticise.

But I've known this 'cyclopædia from its infancy. I've seen it grow from four volumes to the impressive position it occupies n the reference world to-day. "I know the man who publishes it. I went downtown with that man the other day. I went downtown in his $10,000 automobile, with electric lights, artificial flowers, footrest, trunk rack, bulb horn, telephone to his chauffeur-an automobile ouldn't be any more up to date than that nachine: $10,000 and imported. The owner of that car made his money y publishing this wonderful compendium inquired the man who wore the flashing

If it hadn't been a good 'cyclopædia it wouldn't have been a success." "Must be selling at quite some profit," interjected a bystander. "If you can duplicate this set for less than $45 I'll make you a present of these books." replied the auctioneer. "They cost, to make, $31.45." I bought the set for less than $20. The books were knocked down to me for $19 75.

of universal knowledge, including an index.

Clothes are what I really need. And I am several years behind in my instalments on Jones's "Universal Gallery of Literature." I feel that in justice first to myself

"Explorers and travellers, rulers and had no right to bid on another 'cyclopedia. statesmen, inventors and scientists, writ- I didn't intend to do it. The auctioneers When the sale was over I walted to shake why do I laugh when I am glad? What hands with the auctioneer after the others "He was binged on the bean," said a power every time I could arrange it. He said it was better than a college education. Boswell made a great success of the

"I have been greatly impressed to-night knock the auctioneer a little of the base. For the first time that evening he base. For the first time that evening he by your remarkable grasp of literature of by your remarkable grasp of literature of all kinds," I said to the auctioneer. "You all kinds," I said to the auctioneer. must read a great deal. Tell me, have ou done so always?"

"Well," he replied, kindly, "I have read Ivanhoe' four times. That's a great story "Ivanhoe." And I tell you, mister, there's another book I like. I forget the name of the book just now, but Balzac was the author of it. And outside of them, I like Dickens. I've read two of Dickens, and am Auctioneers are among the best actors on "The knowledge of the world, from Adam Broadway, but I am afraid of them now brary of the Y. M. C. A.

the Arlington Mills, at Lawrence, Mass. have been on strike will follow suit."

THE MUSTER OF THE DEAD.

"What well known names are on the death list?" inquired Busy Man.

"William Bayard Cutting, the well-known lawyer, director of many corporations and leader in New York society and civic movements in this city, died on a train while being brought home from the West. from the business world?" asked Busy Man. | George Grossmith, sr., one of the best known actors and public entertainers, died at Folkestone, England, in his sixty-fifth

"William Alexander, Grand Duke of Lox-emburg, died in the city of Luxemburg. Ernst Thalmann, senior member of the Co., with offices at No. 25 Broad street, died at his house, No. 150 West 59th street. ough has yielded to the demands of the William Dodge Porter, treasurer of Phelps, cousin of Grover Cleveland, died at his home in this city. "Miss Grace Anna Lewis, for many years famous as a naturalist, died at her he management of the 'Underground Railread' before the Civil War. Willett B. Andrews, phen McMahon), of the Brothers of the Christian Schools, of this city, died near ing lawyer of this city, died at his home in

"A mutiny of Yuan Shih-kai's soldiers window breaking expedition solely, and a started in Peking. Many of the natives thoroughly organized one. Hundreds of from W. J. Bryan on pending questions.

News Note: Democratic members of the House of Representatives have organized a "Tell-Us-How-to-Vote Club," for the purpose of obtaining advice organized a "Tell-Us-How-to-Vote Club," for the purpose of obtaining advice organized a "Tell-Us-How-to-Vote Club," for the purpose of obtaining advice organized a "Tell-Us-How-to-Vote Club," for the purpose of obtaining advice organized a "Tell-Us-How-to-Vote Club," for the purpose of obtaining advice organized a "Tell-Us-How-to-Vote Club," for the purpose of obtaining advice organized a "Tell-Us-How-to-Vote Club," for the purpose of obtaining advice organized a "Tell-Us-How-to-Vote Club," for the purpose of obtaining advice organized a "Tell-Us-How-to-Vote Club," for the purpose of obtaining advice organized a "Tell-Us-How-to-Vote Club," for the purpose of obtaining advice organized a "Tell-Us-How-to-Vote Club," for the purpose of obtaining advice organized a "Tell-Us-How-to-Vote Club," for the purpose of obtaining advice organized a "Tell-Us-How-to-Vote Club," for the purpose of obtaining advice organized a "Tell-Us-How-to-Vote Club," for the purpose of obtaining advice organized a "Tell-Us-How-to-Vote Club," for the purpose of obtaining advice organized a "Tell-Us-How-to-Vote Club," for the purpose of obtaining advice organized a "Tell-Us-How-to-Vote Club," for the purpose of obtaining advice organized a "Tell-Us-How-to-Vote Club," for the purpose of obtaining advice organized a "Tell-Us-How-to-Vote Club," for the purpose of obtaining advice organized a "Tell-Us-How-to-Vote Club," for the purpose of obtaining advice organized a "Tell-Us-How-to-Vote Club," for the purpose of obtaining advice organized a "Tell-Us-How-to-Vote Club," for the purpose of obtaining advice organized a "Tell-Us-How-to-Vote Club," for the purpose of obtaining advice organized a "Tell-Us-How-to-Vote Cl

